

Job Opening

California Department of Fish and Game Fish and Wildlife Scientific Aide

Pay: $10.82/hr

Start Date: July 3, 2006

Duration: 9 months if working full-time or longer if working less than 40 hours per week (1500 hrs/yr).
Existing Scientific Aides must be able to work a minimum of 130 hours a month for the rest of the year.

Duties: Incumbent will be responsible for entering applications for multiple Game Bird Heritage Special Hunts using the Microsoft Access program, helping conduct drawings, staffing check stations, assisting with Resource Assessment Program field work, answering nuisance wildlife and hunter information calls, and other office duties.

This position requires some weekend work.

Minimum Qualifications: Possession of a valid California Driver's License and

Education: (Either I)
Equivalent to completion of two years of college with a minimum of 10 semester units in biological or environmental sciences.

(Or II)
Experience: One year of experience with the Department of Fish and Game surveying, studying or evaluating fish or wildlife populations or habitats.

Desirable Qualifications: Knowledge of database applications, ArcView, GPS skills helpful. Willing to work independently in remote locations and at hunter check stations. Good communication skills and ability to accurately collect and record field data following established protocols.

Contact: Sara Holm, Wildlife Biologist
SVCSR, Wildlife Management Unit
1701 Nimbus Rd., Suite A
Rancho Cordova, CA 95670
Office: (916) 358-2881
E-mail: sholm@dfg.ca.gov

Submit: Standard state application form (STD 678) and resume to the above contact person. Applications will be pre-screened and those with the most suitable background will be invited to an interview.